

ABOUT OUR MINISTRY AND DIRECTOR

Murray Tilles, director of Light of Messiah Ministries in Atlanta, GA, is a Jewish believer originally from North Carolina. He was born and raised in a traditional Conservative Jewish home. Murray has been a believer for 40 years. He accepted his Messiah at the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill where he graduated in 1982 with his degree in Economics. He has been a missionary to the Jewish people for over 35 years, spending seven years as a staff worker with the ministry of Jews for Jesus. Three of those years were spent with the Liberated Wailing Wall mobile evangelistic team, which he led. He has ministered in thousands of churches in all 48 continental United States as well as in Canada, South Africa, England, and Israel. God has been faithful, as many Jewish people have come to know their Messiah through Murray's work. Murray has earned an M. Div. and an M.A. in Counseling from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in Deerfield, IL. He and his wife Alana have two children, Nathan Asher (27) and Shayna Ariel (24).

Light of Messiah Ministries is the evangelistic witness and outreach to the Jewish community he founded in 1991 and is directing. Our burden is to reach "the Lost Sheep of the House of Israel". Light of Messiah Ministries' focus is on "relational evangelism," meeting Jewish people through Gentile Christians in the local church who have Jewish friends. In order to facilitate this vision Light of Messiah Ministries is establishing Jewish Ministry Teams in local churches, conducting outreaches that help Christians connect with their Jewish friends in culturally relevant ways, and training Christians how to more effectively build their relationships with their Jewish friends. The main goal of our work is to enter into these relationships, meet these Jewish people one on one, and open the Scriptures to see how Jesus is the way of salvation for all people. Our heart's desire, like Paul's, is to see our people saved. That is our burden at Light of Messiah Ministries.

Since coming to Atlanta Murray speaks in over 80 churches a year helping his brothers and sisters in Christ understand the Jewish roots of our faith through Passover services, other messages, and seminars.

Light of Messiah Ministries is governed by a Board of Directors and is recognized by the IRS as a 501 (c) (3) ministry.
